A MESSAGE FROM THE MAYOR

Liverpool really is a city on the move. Its diverse and vibrant population of 212,000 people is growing with 100 new residents every week, driving a boom in residential construction and retail. Its economy is as diverse as its people, with a gross regional product estimated at $11.4 billion in 2016/17.

The establishment of WSA Co, the Federal Government company created to build and operate Western Sydney Airport, in the heart of our city was a great vote of confidence, and consolidates Liverpool as the place to be for anyone who wants to do business with the airport.

In the heart of our city we have a thriving health, education and research precinct. Medical professionals are using the latest technology to provide high-standard health care while researchers develop tomorrow's medical equipment and techniques. Our three universities are producing highly skilled and qualified workers of the future.

We have strong roots in manufacturing, with the sector developing an emphasis on advanced manufacturing and logistics. Health, wholesale trade, transport, education and construction also play a vital role in the City's economy.

Situated at the nexus of what are already some of NSW's biggest roads and rail lines, Liverpool's connectivity is only going to increase as Western Sydney Airport and supporting infrastructure are built.

Liverpool City Council sees the great potential in our city and is working hard to see that potential realised, but we're not the only ones. A total of $13 billion worth of major infrastructure is being invested in infrastructure in Liverpool.

Liverpool is open for business and we invite you to join us in taking up the once-in-a-generation opportunities opening up in our city.

MAYOR WENDY WALLER

OPPORTUNITIES FOR FUTURE GROWTH AND INVESTMENT

Key industry sectors with opportunities for future growth and investment include:

- Advanced manufacturing;
- Building and construction;
- Education;
- Health care and social assistance;
- Professional services;
- Retail;
- Transport and logistics.

Liverpool's population is projected to grow by 126,000, or more than 60%, to 331,000 by 2036, equating to an additional 6,300 people each year.¹ The majority of this growth is planned for the South West Growth Centre and will drive demand for additional services and boost the local labour pool available to businesses.

AN ACCESSIBLE CITY

Liverpool has excellent access to road, rail, sea and air networks. South West Sydney is one of Australia's fastest growing freight hubs, with Liverpool providing direct access to regional, interstate and global markets. Liverpool's position as a freight and logistics hub will be further enhanced with the development of the Western Sydney Airport and Moorebank Intermodal Terminal.

ROAD

- The M5 Motorway, M7 Motorway and Hume Highway link directly to the CBD, Port Botany and the rest of the State;
- The new Western Sydney Infrastructure Plan establishes links to the Western Sydney Airport including the $1.6 billion Northern Road Upgrade, the $500 million Bringelly Road Upgrade and the $1.25 billion M12 motorway.

RAIL

- Strong passenger and freight rail infrastructure including Airport and East Hills, Bankstown, Inner West and Cumberland rail lines;
- The recently completed South West Rail Link has added two train stations servicing the South West Growth Area; the recent extension of the Southern Sydney Freight Line has enhanced freight access and will link to the Moorebank Intermodal Terminal.

AIR

- Western Sydney Airport will be a national and international gateway within the Liverpool LGA;
- Sydney Kingsford Smith Airport is 30 minutes' drive away.

SEA

- Port Botany, Australia's second largest container port accounting for one-third of Australia's container trade, is less than 30 minutes' drive from Liverpool;
- The development of Moorebank Intermodal Terminal will provide direct rail access to the port via the Southern Sydney Freight Line.

THE SEVEN-MINUTE CITY

Anchored by Liverpool Hospital, the Liverpool CBD is a walkable centre of learning and innovation for students and professionals and a vibrant hub of activity for residents. Dining options, shops and recreation spaces are all just a short stroll from public transport.

Workers, students and residents can eat, shop and take a break within a short stroll from transport connections.

The transformation of Macquarie Mall, the city's heart and its central shopping district, created a vibrant public space during the day and night.

The city's 'central park', Bigge Park, provides spaces for time out, recreation and community celebrations. The free touch-to-play water park and adventure play equipment are a great drawcard for families, free exercise classes are run in the park through Live Life Get Active and a pop-up café also operates in the park.

Liverpool hosts a range of vibrant festivals and events throughout the year where the City Centre comes to life.

Council has recently appointed a Precinct Coordinator to help drive further revitalisation and activation of the city centre.

STILL TO COME...

LIVERPOOL CIVIC PLACE

The revitalisation and activation of the southern end of the Liverpool CBD will be driven by the Liverpool Civic Place development. The development will include Council offices and Chambers, a new City Library and community hub, a University of Wollongong South Western Sydney campus, a 4.5 star 140-room hotel, student accommodation, a new public domain, together with commercial and residential uses.

THE HODDLE GRID

New South Wales Colony Surveyor Robert Hoddle, who was later responsible for drawing up Melbourne's characteristic layout, drew his map of Liverpool in 1827, using the rectangular, easily navigable, street grid which makes Liverpool so easy to walk around.

AN AFFORDABLE CITY

AFFORDABLE INDUSTRIAL LAND

Liverpool has over 955 ha of employment land with estates suited to different business needs.³ All are well serviced by transport and utility infrastructure and have land available at prices considerably below other areas in Sydney.

Major developments such as Western Sydney Airport and the Moorebank Intermodal Terminal have led to an increased demand for land. Liverpool City Council encourages investors to seek further advice and act as early as possible.

Key employment precincts include:

- Hoxton Park: New 40 ha industrial estate located on the M7 Motorway with significant potential for freight and logistics;
- Prestons: Large industrial area comprising 343 ha and home to freight and logistics, manufacturing and urban services;
- Moorebank: Large industrial area comprising 336 ha with good access to the M5 Motorway and suited to freight and logistics and general industrial uses;
- Chipping Norton: Well-developed industrial estate comprising 101 ha located to the east of the local government area;
- Crossroads: Strategically located at the interchange of the M5 and M7 Motorways with 17 ha of land suited for bulky goods and logistics operations;
- Orange Grove Road: 22 ha industrial precinct providing support services to the adjacent Liverpool CBD;
- Sappho Road: Smaller industrial estate (18 ha) with lighter uses such as urban services and bulky goods.

Additional employment land will be planned and developed with the recent identification of the Western Sydney Airport Priority Growth Area by the NSW Government, with a focus on knowledge-intensive and technical industries to support the Western Sydney Aerotropolis.
