Liverpool City Council (Council) values cultural diversity and is committed to working in partnership with the local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community.

It is important that Aboriginal culture is acknowledged at all levels of government to show respect for, and build strong equal partnerships with, Aboriginal peoples and communities.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures are complex and diverse. This visitor guide aims to assist Council staff and partners with ways we can work, communicate, consult and recognise our local Aboriginal community. It is hoped that this guide will provide the reader with opportunities to visit sites of significance to gain a better understanding of Aboriginal culture and traditions.

Cutting a long swathe from the foot of the Blue Mountains to the gentle horseshoe-arc of the Georges River, the greater Liverpool region is fantastic in so many ways.

A visit to our region will reveal a large number of cultures – a melting pot of 150 nationalities all calling Liverpool home and adding their own unique style, flavour and colour. There is also a strong connection to Aboriginal communities who for thousands of years used the Georges River as a cultural border and source of food and trade.

We're a region that's greater than the sum of its parts – well serviced by transport options, brimming with a surprising number of postcodes and loaded with unique experiences from the great outdoors to urban streets.

THINGS TO DO IN THE CBD

1 Unwind or wind up at Bigge Park

This big park offers something for everyone – including outdoor exercise equipment, a children's playground, water play area, tennis courts and wide open spaces for picnicking. Go Bigge or go home!

2 Hit Bollywood Boulevard

If 'sari' seems to be the hardest word, head to George Street for exquisitely detailed Indian threads and stunning gold jewellery.

3 Dine around the world

With such a melting pot of cultures calling Liverpool home, it's no surprise that you can sample flavours from India, Lebanon, Turkey, Vietnam, Macedonia, Afghanistan and elsewhere!

4 Have an art attack

Here in Liverpool, every wall is a canvas – and you'll find amazing street artworks big and small across the CBD. Your new favourite could be just around the corner...

5 Step back in time

As one of Australia's oldest cities, Liverpool is rich in architecture that defined it during the early days of European settlement. The CBD is filled with these 'time machine' buildings to explore (more info over page).

A RICH History

As one of Australia's earliest European settlements, Liverpool has always played an important role in the growth of NSW and the nation. Along the way, it gave rise to what are significant heritage sites today...

Collingwood Parklands and House, Hume Highway, Liverpool

Recognised as a significant place of Aboriginal heritage and a place of meeting between the Aboriginal clans of the area, the Collingwood Parklands are adjacent to Collingwood House which was built in 1811 by Eber Bunker. It is one of a number of homesteads constructed along the Georges River. The Collingwood Parklands and House are the remnants of the original 800-acre land grant to Eber Bunker. The Parklands are also home to the Liverpool Regional Museum.

Remount Park, Sabre Crescent, Holsworthy

Remount Park is located on the site of the former Holsworthy Remount Depot. Formed before World War I, the depot provided thousands of horses and trained Lighthorsemen to the war effort. The public park includes new interpretive signage outlining the history of the park and the Australian Lighthorse.

Former Memorial School of Arts, Macquarie Street, Liverpool

Built in the 1920s as a memorial to the soldiers of World War I, the former Memorial School of Arts was the first adult education facility and public library in Liverpool. The building was restored in the early 2000s.

Former Liverpool State Hospital, College Street, Liverpool

Built progressively from the 1820s, the former Liverpool State Hospital was known as the Liverpool Asylum or the Benevolent Society Asylum – starting life as an early hospital, mental institute and workhouse for the poor, primarily men of the colony. It is now a TAFE NSW building.

Liverpool Pioneers Memorial Park, Macquarie Street, Liverpool

Celebrating its 200th anniversary in 2021, Liverpool Pioneers Memorial Park (former St Luke's Cemetery) is one of the oldest cemeteries in NSW, featuring the graves of well-known early pioneers such as James Badgery and Charles Throsby.

liverpoolpioneersmemorialpark.com.au

St Luke's Anglican Church, Elizabeth Street, Liverpool

Built between 1818 and 1820, St Luke's Anglican Church is one of the oldest Anglican churches in Australia and is still active today, serving the people of Liverpool and NSW. The grounds are open daily.

stlukesliverpool.org.au

Former Liverpool Courthouse, Bigge Street, Liverpool

The former Liverpool Courthouse dates from the late Victorian period, but is an adaption of the 1819 Liverpool convict barracks, one of the oldest in NSW. The building features its original courtroom furniture and has remained largely unaltered since the Victorian period. The building is not currently open to the public.

EXPLORE

OUR STORY

Built as part of Australia's bicentennial, the intimate Liverpool Regional Museum is a fantastic way to discover Liverpool's cultural heritage, history and stories.

Step inside and be transported to a collection of different spaces, starting from the lobby itself. Since 2014, the main exhibition gallery has been occupied by signature exhibit 'Resonances' – with purpose-built interactive cabinets filled with an eclectic collection of artefacts that explore pioneering and migrant themes of community, good times, hard times, home, work, children and more.

A bus ticket machine; child's bonnet; suitcase record player; newspaper headline – through the dozens of artefacts and audio recordings you will uncover the deeply personal stories that make up the intricate fabric of Liverpool's rich and diverse timeline.

Alongside and primary to these stories are important Aboriginal artefacts including a Scarred Tree and other generously loaned artefacts from organisations such as Gandangara Local Aboriginal Land Council that help to add an important first layer to the collective history of the region – one that spans 40,000 years before European Settlement.

Further gallery spaces here at the Regional Museum showcase new exhibitions approximately every 3-6 months, from photo exhibits, special interest collections and topical history themes. The site is also home to the Family Heritage Centre – run by the Liverpool Genealogy Society and available for the public to go out on a limb and explore the branches of family trees past and present.

Located just a few minutes' drive from Liverpool CBD, this museum provides a great insight into the stories and items that shaped the history of the region.

CREATIVE LIVERPOOL

Right at the heart of this conveyor belt of creativity, true to its name in energising the region, is the award-winning Casula Powerhouse Arts Centre (CPAC).

Originally built in 1951 to supplement winter power shortages, Casula Powerhouse was decommissioned in the 1970s before being reborn decades later as one of Sydney's most iconic arts destinations.

Besides its obvious unique architectural appeal, CPAC's biggest strength comes from the incredibly diverse Liverpool region – itself powering the facility across a jam-packed season of visual arts, theatre, multimedia, film, music, festivals and so much more. From the jaw-droppingly cavernous events lobby that is the Turbine Hall to a purpose-built 320-seat theatre, artists' residence, studios and six gallery spaces across multiple levels, this truly is a centre for the arts.

The sheer variety of events at CPAC is testament to Liverpool's vibrant 'patchwork quilt' of ethnicities, orientations and interests. A shared space where seniors matinees and ceramics workshops rub shoulders with prized art shows and curated films from South America or Palestine. Where a youth orchestra is followed by a public choir session, an over-40s dance party or an electronica event. And where there is room in the calendar for both an Irish and Iraqi festival!

CPAC's enthusiasm is matched by audiences who flock to the destination (via Powerhouse Road – quite possibly the world's longest cul-de-sac – or by catching a train to the Casula station right next door). Behind the CPAC you can find two old water tanks with legal graffiti status, giving an outlet for artists to canvas their work. Sometimes they come just for the food (it's that good) at the licensed on-site Bellbird Café & Dining. Head chef Federico serves up a locally-sourced fusion menu that isn't afraid to change daily depending on what he picks from the kitchen garden right outside.

Whether it's local flavours on a plate or in art form, this is a must-visit Liverpool location truly owned by the community. The turbines may be long gone, but CPAC continues to burn bright!

ART OF THIS WORLD

Keen to find examples of art and sculpture during your stay in Liverpool? Well, you'll LOVE the fact that we wear our art on our sleeves – on full display and ready to discover!

First stop on any art pilgrimage between November and August 2020 should be the Liverpool Sculpture Walk in Casula Parklands, neighbouring Casula Powerhouse Arts Centre – where a selection of works from the previous Sculpture by the Sea event (held each October in Bondi) make their home along this pleasant riverside setting about a 20-minute stroll (or 2-minute drive) from the CBD.

Not that you need to leave the grid streets of Liverpool's heart to discover creative gems for yourself.

On almost every corner there is a chance to size up a sculpture – ranging from the abstract realism of town-founder Governor Macquarie on Macquarie Street to the bafflingly blocky animal forms in the gardens around historic St Luke's Anglican Church. No location is spared the creative treatment!

And if wall art is more your cup of tea, then order that tea to go, because you'll have a lot of walking to do. Here in Liverpool, we don't just paint the town red – we bring the entire rainbow to the party. And quite the party it is too, with everything from laneway tributes to the late Prince and Kobe Bryant to multi-storey building murals, brought to life by some of the country's most talented artists.

Life's too short for bland, beige and boring. If you love art, you'll love Liverpool!

AUSTRALIAN ARMY MUSEUM OF MILITARY ENGINEERING

Learn LIVERPOOL

Holsworthy Barracks is part of a 22,000 hectare training area that has been in active use since World War I. It includes an artillery range and its own military airport – all still in use today.

WITH

MILITARY PRECISION

Behind every great army is an equally great team of engineers and law enforcers – showcased behind the gates of Holsworthy Barracks in two special interest museums now open to the public.

First stop is the Australian Army Museum of Military Engineering – paying homage to a century of 'sappers' – the Royal Australian Engineers. It's here you'll find an impressive display of vehicles, equipment and memorabilia organised by timeline and key engineering disciplines – all embodying the spirit of 'first in, last out' in peacetime and war. Archiving and restoration is also done on site, with the collection growing every year.

The smaller Museum of Military Police offers a curated collection that dates back even further to the Boer War of 1899 and showcases the uniforms, tools of the trade (e.g. portable typewriters for issuing fines) and the hit-and-miss MP motorcycle design over the decades! There's even a tribute to the four-legged enforcers of the law.

Both museums are open to the public Tuesdays & Thursdays and on the first weekend of the month. Phone (02) 8782 8822 to arrange your own visit – please allow 72 hours' notice.

FOOD GLORIOUS FOOD

They say, if you want authentic flavours, travel to the source. And if you can't do that, head to Liverpool – South West Sydney's home to sumptuous culinary delights!

It's here in some of the most unlikely places (like the middle of a carpark or a small suburban shopping centre) that you'll uncover foodie nirvana. You can spend an entire afternoon sampling delicious deli delights or finding pure bliss amid aromatic spices. And it's here that you can take a global taste bud journey in just a handful of city blocks.

Liverpool locals take their food seriously – both the gathering of the freshest ingredients (as you'll see over the page) and in the preparation and sharing of authentic dishes. # Foodies UNITE!

Cities often tout their laneways as the place to go for a slice, bite or scoop of the culinary action. And here in Liverpool, we agree that it makes a lot of sense. Especially when you pop by The Laneway - a new indoor dining precinct at Liverpool Catholic Club.

This is one venue that's taken the concept of 'everything under one roof' literally to deliver an all-year-round entertainment venue (see page 32 for more detail) and casual dining experience that's ideal for meals with family and friends or date night with that special someone.

The Catholic Club already offers a large cafe and separate Atrium steakhouse restaurant, but the new laneway precinct boasts five offerings in one. Here you'll find a bar, brasserie, cafe, wood-fired pizza and pasta bar, and gelato parlour around the same relaxed dining space. Throw in the two-storey cargo-netted jellyfish-pod playground for little ones to climb and you've got a winning family experience under one roof.

The Laneway at The Catholic Club has a simple aim of making casual dining a no-brainer, with ample free parking, loads of dining choices and no angst about the rain ruining your laneway lunch. So get comfy and order yourself that coffee, burger, gnocchi or Oreo milkshake and dine out in glorious fashion!

GROWERS & FOODIES

MARKET

From 7am 'til midday every Saturday morning in rain, hail or shine, Liverpool Growers & Foodies Market – the region's only true growers market – sets up shop on the netball courts alongside Chipping Norton Community Centre.

This market is intentionally strict on only allowing local producers on court to 'play' – and Liverpool's food bowl is well represented with goodies including stone fruit, figs, apples, strawberries, root vegetables, tomatoes, cucumbers and other leafy greens. Joining them most weeks are other 'home-grown' favourites such as macadamias, olive oil, honey, soap, milk, cheese, yoghurt, juices, coffee and of course the good old cake stall.

Multiple stalls fill out the space each week, trading their wares and sharing stories over trestles and under tarps. There's toys for the kids and buyers are encouraged to bring their own bags.

According to organiser Marilyn, the Liverpool Growers & Foodies Markets are more like a weekly family reunion – with kids learning the provenance of the food they eat rather than thinking everything is grown in a supermarket aisle. As a community social gathering, it's invaluable – and if you get to enjoy great tasting fresh produce, even better!

A WORLD OF Flavours

What began five years ago as a way to help new migrants share their cultures and learn new skills has become Taste Tours – a popular walking food tour on offer in Liverpool.

Taste Tours are about more than just a bowl of food – they're about bridging cultural differences. All of the guides are migrants who have come from places such as Syria, Libya, Afghanistan, Turkey and Cambodia.

They knew very little English when they arrived and now confidently share their stories while visiting places that participants might not normally choose to visit.

Tours run on Saturdays from 10:30am-2pm and focus on capturing authentic food experiences – stopping at nine different city locations in a combination of shopping and eating that includes Lebanese pizza, a Balkan butchery, Iraqi bakery, Indian supermarket, Macedonian burek shop, falafel, olives, fruit, breads, Indian sweets and other tasty surprises. Allergies and dietary requirements can be catered for, and most cuisines on the tour already have plant-based options.

If you're craving a culturally authentic culinary combo, Taste Tours will hit the spot!

- 2 tbsp Kashmiri chilli powder
- 2 tsp Garam masala powder
- 2 tsp Dried fenugreek leaves
- 100ml Yogurt
- 150ml Thickened cream
- 200g Onion paste
- 200g Tomato puree
- 100g Cashew nut paste
- 1 tbsp Lemon juice
- 2 tbsp Sugar
- 25g Oil
- 25g Butter
- Salt to taste
- Chopped coriander for garnish

Method

1. Dice and marinate chicken with 1 tbsp each of kashmiri chilli powder, salt, garam masala, lemon juice, ginger and garlic paste, yogurt, oil and dried fenugreek leaves. Mix well and keep to the side for 10 minutes.

2. Roast chicken in a tandoori oven. If you don't have a tandoori oven, use normal oven and place the marinated chicken in a tray and cook for 10 minutes at 200°C.

3. Make sauce by heating oil in a pan and adding onion paste, stirring until golden brown. Add remaining ginger and garlic paste, kashmiri chilli powder, dried fenugreek leaves, garam masala, salt and sugar and cook it for 1 minute. Add tomato puree, mix well and cook for 5 minutes. Then add roasted chicken, thickened cream and butter.

4. Garnish with chopped coriander and serve with naan or rice.

Chicken & WAFFLES

MILI & CO CAFE
3/1 Lancaster Ave, Cecil Hills

Ingredients

Wet Mix (chicken marinade)

- 200ml Buttermilk
- 500g Chicken thigh fillets
- 1 tbsp Salt
- 1 tbsp Paprika

Pancake OR Waffle Mix

- 1 cup Self-raising flour (sifted)
- 1 tbsp Sugar
- 1 Egg (lightly beaten)
- 3/4 cup Sugar
- 50g Butter (melted)

Dry Chicken Flour Mix

- 2 cup Plain flour
- 1 cup Cornflour
- 150g Sesame seeds
- 2 tbs Garlic salt

Asian Slaw

- 1/2 Red cabbage, finely shredded
- 2 Carrots, cut into fine matchsticks
- 1/2 cup Finely chopped shallots

Dressing (for Asian Slaw)

- 3 tsp Sesame oil
- 3 tsp Soy sauce
- 2 tsp Honey

Sriracha Mayo

- 1 cup Kewpie mayonnaise
- 3 tbsp Sriracha

Maple Syrup

Method

1. Marinate the chicken. Prepare wet mix by adding the buttermilk, salt and paprika. Trim chicken thigh to desired pieces and add it to the buttermilk mix. We recommend marinating the chicken in the wet mix overnight or a minimum of 2 hours in the fridge prior to frying.

2. Combine red cabbage, carrot, shallots together to make Asian slaw.

3. To make the dressing for the slaw, combine sesame oil, soy sauce and honey. Drizzle and mix in on the slaw 15 minutes before serving.

4. To make sriracha mayo, simply combine well the sriracha sauce and Kewpie mayonnaise.

5. Pancakes. In a bowl, whisk flour and sugar. Beat in the egg and then add milk a little at a time until batter is smooth and lump-free. In a hot pan or flat grill over medium heat, brush butter over cooking surface and pour 1/4 cup measures for each pancake. When large bubbles form on the surface, flip the pancake over and cook until lightly golden on the other side.

6. Combine dry ingredients for chicken flour mix and mix until well combined. Meanwhile heat up the pot of oil or deep fryer to approx. 165°C.

7. Ready to fry? Working in batches, fry chicken by coating the buttermilk chicken into the dry flour mix, several pieces at a time, then fry until golden brown and cooked through. Using a slotted spoon, transfer chicken to paper towel to drain.

8. Plate the pancakes, Asian slaw, fried chicken as desired. Serve sriracha mayo and maple syrup on the side or drizzled on top as desired.

ADVENTURE & EXPERIENCES

In the picture postcard of places to explore and adventures to have, Liverpool presents a brimming montage of experiences – spread out across both the CBD and the wider region, with something for all ages and interests.

Whether it's shooting arrows on one side of the river, racing a ninja course on the other, or splashing your way in between, there's something surprising to discover around every corner. In fact, that's what we love about our region. You'll find yourself experiencing things you didn't even put near your bucket list – like a beginners archery session – all equipment supplied. Or like barefoot waterskiing on the river nearby (bring your own foot).

Love staying active? You're never far from a walking track, cycle path, golf course, tennis court or exercise machine – and boaties can launch at Angle Park on Chipping Norton Lake (with three other ramps on the north side), plus Davy Robinson Park and Sandy Point.

Meanwhile, families can let rip on the impressive water-activated playground in Bigge Park, adventure playground at Casula Parklands, plus mini golf and even remote control car racing. Prefer swimming or ice skating? We've got that covered too.

Or, perhaps your idea of a getaway experience means putting the 'amp' into 'pampering' by indulging in serious retail therapy or even actual massage therapy as you let the worries melt away.

Whatever your passion, we'll not only fill it – we'll find new ways to complement it!

Shop 'TIL YOU DROP!

Shops are shops are shops, right? Nope, not here in Liverpool, where you'll find some rare retail offerings just waiting to be discovered.

As we hinted at back on page 9, you'd be lying to yourself if you didn't want to let a little Bollywood bling into your life. George Street is not only the place to secure a sassy, stylish, sequined sari – it's also dripping with unique gold jewellery.

Or if tasty things are more what you're after, hit the CBD's authentic delis to load up on fresh produce, meats, breads, hummus and plenty more. Just don't forget to fuel your fun with a quality coffee or two from a local cafe along the way.

Learn LIVERPOOL

Just how multicultural IS Liverpool? Well, at last count (2016 census), there were 14k Italians, 13k Indians, 12k Lebanese, 11k Vietnamese, 10k Chinese and another 80k from more than 100 other nationalities. That's a very big melting pot!

PLAYING FAVOURITES

You might think comparing playgrounds is all swings and roundabouts. But not so here at Casula Parklands – where Liverpool's newest adventure playground is bringing something new.

The key here is that this is a playground for everyone to enjoy. For teens and adults, there's a 'ninja training circuit' - crammed with a dozen or so obstacles and featuring its own start/finish line so you challenge your mates. Little ones can soar through the sky on dual flying foxes and stay hydrated with on site bubblers. And then there's the main event – an 8-metre high climbing pyramid, sky walk and tunnel slide, as well as swings, accessible play equipment and a designated play area for tiny tots. Needless to say, it's a hit for kids!

Round out your family experience with a trip to nearby Casula Powerhouse Arts Centre to take in fantastic art and enjoy a bite to eat at Bellbird Dining & Bar. Visit casulapowerhouse.com to find out about current exhibitions.

ROOM TO Ride

Getting around by bike is a great way to explore a new place. So if you're planning your own Tour de Livo, we recommend the following cycle-friendly spots:

- Western Sydney Parklands (The Shale Hills Loop)
- Carnes Hills recreation precinct

RELAX AND PLAY

Fantastic eats at The Laneway dining precinct are just the tip of the iceberg when it comes to year-round entertainment at Liverpool Catholic Club.

The Catholic Club itself is gargantuan and is equipped to hold functions of up to 1200 people, boasting a 4.5 star, 192-room hotel with resort pool and state-of-the-art 200-seat cinema that screens free children's movies during school holidays.

Opposite the Catholic Club is its ever-popular Ice Skating Rink and Sports Complex. Hire some blades and test your twirling ability or cheer on the resident LCC Saints ice hockey team in winter. You'll also find a gym and fitness studio upstairs, while families can practise their short game on the 18-hole mini golf course that's open until 7pm every night.

Add in a regular calendar of events such as holiday programs, Christmas carols and New Year's Eve fireworks and it's clear that whether you're relaxing or playing, there's always something good happening at Liverpool Catholic Club!
